

Sons of the American Revolution Middle School Brochure Contest

Introduction: Middle School students will create a brochure depicting the theme chosen by the Americanism Committee of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR).

This contest is directed at students in the 6th through 9th grades, depending on which grade year the American Revolution is taught in their educational system. For example, in California, this will be the 8th grade.

The Americanism Committee topic / theme for the upcoming school years are:

| | |
|---------|--------------------------------|
| 2013-14 | Francis Marion - The Swamp Fox |
| 2014-15 | George Rogers Clark |
| 2015-16 | Lexington and Concord |
| 2016-17 | The OverMountain Men |

The brochure should exhibit a knowledge and understanding of American history as well as a personal interpretation concerning the ways in which that history affects contemporary society. The objective is for the students to truly internalize and understand the event and be able to interpret meaning that is relevant in their own life or in contemporary society in general.

Guidelines: Brochure size: The brochures must be made from a single 8 ½” x 11” piece of blank printer paper. The paper must be folded according to the instructions provided for the contest. The content of the various panels of the brochure should align with the instructions provided.

Paper thickness: The thickness of paper in the US is commonly expressed on the package of paper as the “weight”. The basis weight of a paper is the designated fixed weight of 500 sheets, measured in pounds, in that paper's basic sheet size. For the purposes of the contest, choose 8 ½” x 11” paper with a ‘weight’ of 32 Lbs or less is recommended. Paper weights of 20, 24, 28, and 32 Lbs are common. Construction paper is usually thicker – over 32 Lbs, but may be used so long as the final product can be folded closed as a tri-fold 8 ½” x 11” brochure.

Paper color: White paper is most common, but pastel, or color paper is acceptable.

Artwork: All artwork on brochures must be hand drawn. Do not paste pictures from magazines, books, or the Internet onto the brochure. Do not use clip art. Tracing is permissible and simple drawings that represent complex concepts are encouraged for those who may doubt their artistic skills. Ideas are the most important element in these brochures and the art is merely a means of conveying those ideas.

Pasting: Pasting of hand drawn art work onto a master is permitted. Lighter paper weights (e.g. 20, 24 Lbs) are recommended for items to be pasted onto a master.

Text: The written text is commonly hand printed. Typed text sections (even pasted on) are also permitted. [CAUTION: This must be original text written by the student – not clipped from magazines, books or taken off the Internet.]

Judging: Brochures will be judged using a scoring rubric focusing on the following elements: 1. Content; 2. Creativity; 3. Correctness

A copy of the scoring rubric is included in this packet, and teachers are encouraged to share it with their students. A single page instructions sheet of Contest Rules is also available as a handout.

Prizes & Award: Competition and recognition in the form of Prizes & Awards begins at the local (Chapter) level – Typically a City or a County. Winners at the Chapter level are eligible to compete at the State level. Winners at the State level are eligible to compete at the National level of the SAR. NOTE: In School Year 2013-14, the contest became a National Contest.

Brochure Directions

1. Provide a single sheet of 8 ½ x 11 piece of paper for each student. Students should fold the paper as illustrated in figure 1 (The paper should be evenly folded into thirds).

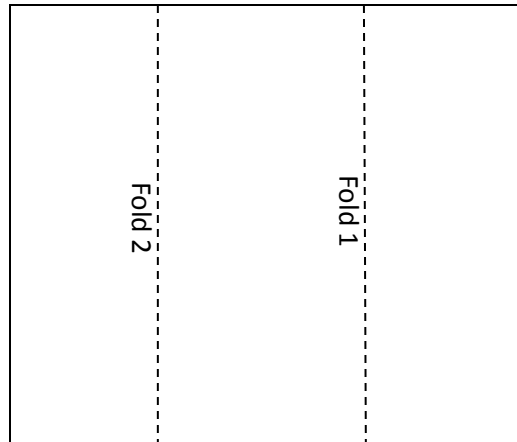

Figure 1

2. Once the paper is folded, instruct students that their brochure will open in the same direction as a book. See Figure 2 below.

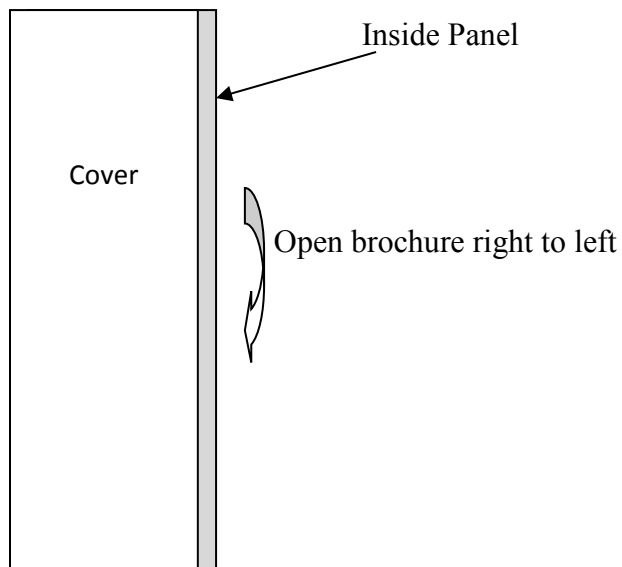

Figure 2

3. Following is an explanation of what each panel of the brochure should contain:
- a. Cover: A title and a picture
 - b. Inside Cover: Picture to accompany the introduction. May also contain a brief caption or explanation of the picture.
 - c. First inside panel: An introduction that presents the basic facts of the event and succinctly states the main idea presented in the interior of the brochure. The introduction should have a title, be written in paragraph form, and clearly communicate the overarching concept of the brochure.
 - d. Two inner panels: A detailed explanation of the ideas of the student around the theme. This written explanation should provide a systematic argument persuading the reader to the point of view of the author; that is, it should be a persuasive essay. The writing should be clear, well organized, and convincing. These panels may also contain pictures and/or artwork that make the brochure more aesthetically appealing. Some questions that may be helpful for the students to consider when completing these panels would include:
 - i. What are the lessons for our country within this event?
 - ii. How does this event reflect American society and American values?
 - iii. What thoughts do you have regarding the sacrifices made by the participants in this event?
 - iv. What was the outcome of the event and how did this outcome impact American history?
 - v. What motivated the participants to be a part of this event?
 - vi. Could you have done what these people did? Would you have done it?
 - e. Back Panel: The following information must be included in the exact order specified on the back panel of the brochure inside a 2 ½” x 2 ½” framed box. Failure to include this information, and to contain all the information in the 2 ½” x 2 ½” framed box, can result in disqualification from the competition.
 - i. Student’s Name: First, Middle Initial, and Last
 - ii. School District
 - iii. School Name: Complete school name (do not abbreviate)
 - iv. Grade in School: (in California – 8th Grade) + School Year: 2012-13
 - v. Student’s Teacher’s Name:
 - vi. SAR Code: (provided by Teacher: State Code, SAR Chapter)

[NOTE 1: When a Brochure is submitted from another source, other than a school, e.g. C.A.R. Society, or home schooled child, reflect that in the info block.]

[NOTE 2: SAR will conceal the above personal information throughout the judging process using a 3”x 3” Post-It® note.]

Scoring: As stated earlier, brochures will be judged using a scoring rubric focusing on the following elements: 1. Content; 2. Creativity; 3. Correctness

Forms: These Forms are designed to support the SAR Middle School Brochure Contest.

1. Brochure Program Spreadsheet Form 1: This form is meant for the use of the State Brochure Chairman. Not included in this Guide packet.
2. Brochure Guide Tally Sheet Form 2: This form is meant as a template for Chapters to use in selecting their Chapter winners.
3. Brochure Guide Scoring Form 3: This form contains the elements of the Rubric with a column for each of the three (3) evaluation categories: Content, Creativity and Correctness. This form will be used in the State Level Judging. Chapters, in selecting their Chapter Winner and entry into the State Level Competition, may choose a less rigorous process.
4. Brochure Guide Scoring Form 4A, 4B, 4C: These three forms contain the elements of the Rubric for one of the three (3) evaluation categories: 4A. Content, 4B Creativity and 4C Correctness. These forms will be used in the State Level Judging. Not included in this Guide packet.

The scoring rubric is included in detail in the next three pages of this packet. The scoring rubric has also been condensed onto a single page for ease in the process of scoring several submissions at the SAR Chapter level – Form 3. (Teachers are encouraged to share the rubric with their students.)

Process: Scoring Raters at the SAR Chapter level should follow these steps:

1. Make an effort not to disclose the name of Brochure student creators until the final SAR Chapter level ranking. Use a unique Brochure ID which will later allow the Chapter to identify the class winner, the school winner, and the Chapter winner.
2. Chapters are urged to consider using Form 3, the Brochure Scoring form. The Form enables the Chapter, if they choose, to have different Scoring Raters for each of the three elements being rated: Content; Creative; Correctness. However, it is permissible for the Chapter to arrive at a Chapter Winner following a less rigorous procedure. Nevertheless, Form 3 (and Form 4) will be used during State level Judging.
3. Chapters may use Form 2, the Brochure Tally sheet to derive the total scores from a panel of Scoring Raters to arrive at the individual winners.
4. When the winners have been identified by Brochure ID, the names of the students can be publicly revealed.

Judging: State and/or Chapter Committee Chairman may wish to request the SAR Brochure Judging Process guide.
